

LEONARD &
GALERIE D'ART

What is a portrait?
Is it an interpretation of the human condition?
Is it a portrait of the soul?
Is it a portrait of the artist?

Don't know? No!

The exhibition "Leonard & Bina Ellen" is a selection of the work of the artist Bina Ellen, a Canadian artist who has been active in the art world since the 1960s. Her work is characterized by a strong sense of form and a deep understanding of the human condition. The exhibition is a must-see for anyone interested in contemporary art.

BINA ELLI

The definition of a portrait is "an artistic or photographic representation of a person, past and present, used for purposes of identification or commemoration." The historical function of a portrait is to identify the individual and to provide a visual record of the subject. However, the definition of the word "portrait" has evolved over time, and it now encompasses a wide range of artistic and photographic practices. In the 20th century, the portrait has become a more complex and multifaceted genre, reflecting the changing nature of the individual and the role of the artist.

The portrait is a genre of art that has been defined in many different ways. Some define it as a representation of a person, while others see it as a reflection of the artist's inner world. The portrait is a complex and multifaceted genre, and it has evolved over time to encompass a wide range of artistic and photographic practices. In the 20th century, the portrait has become a more complex and multifaceted genre, reflecting the changing nature of the individual and the role of the artist.
